RESETTING AMERICA

May 17, 1776

Surely your wrath against mankind brings you praise, and the survivors of your wrath are restrained.

Soon after arriving in America, John Witherspoon began advocating liberty. On May 17, 1776, he preached “The Dominion of Providence over the Passions of Men” based on Psalm 76:10.

After a brief introduction, he went on to explain “verse 10 tells us God can bring good out of the ravings of one’s opponents. The Lord knows how to work everything for the good of His cause. Witherspoon continued:

To apply it more particularly to the present state of the American colonies and the plague of war – the ambition of mistaken princes, the cunning and cruelty of oppressive and corrupt ministers, and even the inhumanity of brutal soldiers, however dreadful. Shall finally, promote the glory of God, and in the meantime, while the storm continues, His mercy and kindness shall appear in prescribing bounds to their rage and fury.”¹

Then Witherspoon urged his listeners to dedicate themselves to Jesus Christ for salvation and to be of good courage. He charged the people to behave valiantly and let the Lord do that which is good in His sight.

In closing he prayed “God grant that in America, true religion and civil liberty may be inseparable, and that the unjust attempts to destroy the one may in the [end] tend to the support and establishing of both.”²

Witherspoon was elected to be chaplain at the Continental Congress. He signed the Declaration of Independence, served on countless committees, and advocated the adoption of the Constitution.

Let us pray as our forefathers that the people of America will dedicate themselves to Jesus Christ.

We declare we as Believers are of good courage.

“God grant that in America, true religion and civil liberty may be inseparable, and that the unjust attempts to destroy the one may in the [end] tend to the support and establishing of both.”

MARRIAGE AND SEXUALITY

In 2004, the legalization of same-sex marriage ignited national struggle. Then within the decade, the Supreme Court dissolved the Federal Defense of Marriage Act.

Justice Scalia remarked it was “lacking even a thin veneer of law” and was naked judicial claim to legislative – indeed, super-legislative- power.”

Homosexual behavior is specifically and repeatedly denounced in the Old and New Testaments.

(Testaments (Genesis 19, Leviticus 18:22, Ezekiel 16:49-50, Romans 1:18-32, I Corinthians, 6:7-11, I Timothy 1:8-11, Jude 7).

*Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.
Isaiah 5:20*

Pray for those caught up in the lie that you are judgmental and xenophobic if you do not support same sex marriage.

Pray for those in homosexual relationships.

Bind the spirit of deceit in the Name of Jesus.

Release truth of what God says about marriage, sexuality, and gender over your family, neighborhood and state.

Pray to bolster leaders and organizations committed to biblical marriage and sexuality.

*Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.
Genesis 2:24*

BIDEN

Hunter Biden allegedly sought to pocket millions from deals involving a Chinese energy giant with ties to the Chinese military, according to emails obtained by the New York Post.

In a separate email Biden sent to Hong Kong financier Dong Gongwen on Aug. 2, 2017, Biden reveals that he previously had a three-year agreement with CEFC that would pay him $10 million per year “for introductions alone.” Epoch Times

Pray for quick findings to bring this to a close followed by justice for all involved.

*"And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross."
Colossians 2:15*
